Certificate Course Valedictory Report

30.12.2015.

Communication Skills refer to both character traits and interpersonal skills that will influence how well a person can work or interact with others. The term Communication Skills cover a wide range of skills as diverse as teamwork, time management, empathy and delegation. The importance of these Communication Skills is often undervalued, and there is far less training provided for them than hard skills such as coding. Organizations seem to expect people know how to behave on the job and the importance of skills such as taking initiative, communicating effectively and listening, which often is not the case.

The SDGS College identified the importance of soft skills and organised a 45 days programme entitled "Communication Skills for Success" under the Competitive Examinations and Career Counselling Cell in cooperation with Department of English. For this programme 150 students were enrolled.

The Valedictory function of the programme was started at 3:00 Pm on 30.12.2015. by inviting the Principal, Programme Convener and the Head Department of English on to the Dias. The Principal of the College in his inaugural speech congratulated the Convener of the Programme and English Department for organising this kind of programme in the college for the benefit of students. In his speech the principal explained the importance of
